THE BEDIENT FAMILY - 1996

FOREWORD

This document is a compilation of data concerning the Bedient Family from the time they came to the United States until the present. Much of the data probably would not meet the strict requirements of a dyed-in-the-wool genealogist, but it does give a reasonably accurate picture of how the family grew over 300-plus years.

The data has been gleaned from many sources starting with that handed down from my own branch of the family. From there, Census information, Social Security data, Survey Sheets that I mailed out and people were kind enough to fill-out and return, telephone calls, records in the National Archives, and family histories compiled by other family members. I would like to give special acknowledgment to Phillip E. Bedient of Lancaster, PA, Jean M. Bedient of Gerry, NY, and to my son, James Richard Bedient, who did a great deal of research in the National Archives, Washington D.C.

THE BEDIENT FAMILY - 1996

This booklet contains information on 14 generations of the Bedient family from the 1600's through 1996 gathered from many different sources - some from public records, some from accumulations of family happenings, some from newspapers, but most from the generous contributions from family members. This document is not intended to be anything other than a compilation of all these things. Some of the entries are the "best guess" of what may have been as many as three or four conflicting bits of information from different sources. Some of this information has passed through many hands, from handwritten to handwritten to typewritten to typewritten and then finally ending up here. You can readily see how figures get transposed, letters get mistaken for one another (when you are reading handwritten things from microfilm 3's can look like 5's and Jan can look like Jun. It is not unusual to find different spellings of names by one source or another (Grizel has been spelled as Gizel and Gisel - no question of it not being the same person) but which is correct? Please consider these things if you note something you believe to be an error.

The booklet is divided into two parts - This part containing the family information with an alphabetical index and a second part containing a series of appendices giving some of the sources used, some interesting comments on various family members, and some statistical charts.

The format of the first part needs some explanation for better understanding. It is computer generated so has some things that cannot be changed but with patience you should have little problem.
Following are the elements used for each person; however, if an element does not contain any data it will be skipped:

- NUMBER FOR EACH INDIVIDUAL - Except for number 1 (Mordecai), all numbers are assigned the first time an individual is mentioned in the document and will appear in the indented position. If there is a + mark to the left of the number, it means that there is information on this individual as a head of family later on. If there is no + mark, all information for that individual will be printed at that point. The small Roman numeral immediately next to the name is only the birth order within a given family and is not used again with that person later on.

- NAME - The full name is used when known. If only a partial name or initials are known, only that will appear. Dashes may be shown to indicate a missing first or last name.

- DIRECT LINEAGE - Immediately following the name will be one or more names shown in parentheses, each with a number preceding the name (that persons' number within this document) and a superscript number following showing the generation number. This is a quick way to follow any person back to the oldest generation.

- BIRTH DATE AND PLACE - Following the abbreviation "b." will be as much of the birth date as is known and the place of birth (town, county, state). Standard two-letter abbreviations are used for states. If neither the date nor the place of birth is known, there will be no entry.

- RESIDED IN - If known, the place of residence and year of the information will be shown.

- DEATH DATE AND PLACE - If deceased and information known, the date and place of death will be shown in the same format as Birth Date and Place.

- BURIED - If deceased and information known, date and place of burial will be shown.

- REFERENCE NUMBER - Each person who is directly descended from Mordecai is assigned a number that is unique to that person and can be used 1) to identify a person within a family and 2) to compute relationship to another person within the same family. The numbers are assigned starting with the first person of the oldest generation e.g., Mordecai Bedient is number 1. His second child (Thomas) is assigned number 12. Thomas' second child (John) is assigned number 122. John's eighth child (Mordecai) is assigned 1228. As you can see the numbers build with each generation and show the birth order in each individual family e.g., 12281b1033 is Donald, the third child of that family in generation 10. Note the "b" in this reference number - that family had more than 10 children so number 11 is "a" and 12 "b", etc. Using these numbers to determine relationship between two persons within the same family will be discussed later.

- OCCUPATION - An individuals occupation will be shown when known and may be heavily abbreviated due to the size of the field.

- MARRIAGE - Following the letter "m." will be the date and place of marriage, the spouse's name, date and place of birth (death and buried, if applicable and known), and occupation . If there is more than one spouse each will be shown in the order of marriage . Marriages that end in divorce will be indicated and show the year of divorce.

- COMMENTS - It is confusing but the comments, if any, for the direct descendant immediately follow the last entry for the spouse. Comments for the spouse start on a new line and are preceded by the spouse's first name.

- CHILDREN - are listed in birth order and if there is more than one spouse, by birth order by spouse. If there is a + mark to the left of the child's number, there will be more information later and only their name and date of birth shown at this time. If there is no + mark, all information for that child will be given.

Now that there is some understanding of what is contained and how the reference numbers are assigned, the next step is to be able to compute a relationship between two persons. Start by writing two reference numbers one directly above the other as in the following examples:

Example 1 - 12281b Jesse Bedient
12281b1033 Donald Eugene Bedient

The numbers are identical through 12281b so in Donald's number 12281b1 is the first child of Jesse, 12281b10 is the 10th child of 12281b1 therefor a grandchild of Jesse, 12281b103 is the third child of 12281b10 therefor a Great-Grandchild of Jesse so, obviously 12281b1033 is a Great-Great-Grandchild of Jesse.

Example 2 - 122093413 Jean Maxine Bedient
12281b1033 Donald Eugene Bedient

Numbers are identical through 122 so 1220 and 1228 are siblings making 1220 an Aunt /Uncle of 12281 and 1228 an Aunt/Uncle of 12209; therefore, 12281 and 12209 are first cousins. It follows that 122093 and 12281b are second cousins and so on until you reach 122093413 and 12281b103 who are fifth cousins. Since Jean is of the ninth generation and Donald is of the tenth generation, this makes them fifth cousins, once removed. The "once removed" comes from the one generational difference.

Example 3 - 12281b3 Orlando Bedient
12281b103 Donald Eugene Bedient
Orlando is Donald's Great-Great-Uncle.

Example 4 - 12281231182 Zane Arthur Bedient
12281b103 Herbert Fred Bedient
Zane and Herbert are third cousins, twice removed. The "twice removed", again, comes from the generational difference. If there had been a three generation difference, it would have been three times removed.

As you can see, by having the reference numbers of any two people in the same family, no matter what generation, you can compute their relationship. It looks a little complicated but really isn't once you have worked through it a few times.

A document such as this is never a "completed" piece of work. Further research will change or add to some entries for the early generations and there will always be births, deaths, marriages, and other important happenings within the current and future generations. For that reason, this document is printed only on one side of each page. This leaves holders a place to make notes, add comments or information to existing entries and to add new family members (newly discovered or newly born). As you do this (or discover incorrect information), keep in mind that the originator of this document would like very much to have the information to update his computer file (D. E. Bedient, 9835 East Sagebrush Drive, Prescott Valley, AZ 86314-7626}. Keeping the above in mind, it is now time to turn the page and , starting with Mordecai and Mary,who came from England, follow the family tree from branch to branch and find yourself and your immediate family. I think you will find it enjoyable and informative.

4. iii JOHN BEDIENT b. Prior to 1674, Westchester, NY, ref: 13, d. 0-___-1783, Wilton, Fairfield Co., CT. John Bedient is mentioned in the will of his step-father Roger Townsend dated May 7, 1674. He purchased a lot in Westchester Co.NY on May 28, 1682 and was still living in Westchester on Jul 26 1686 when he conveyed to his brother Thomas all land formerly owned by their father Mordecai Bedient amd his wife Mary as well as by their step-father Roger Townsend, lately in the tenure of Richard Osborn.

Second Generation

3. THOMAS BEDIENT (1.MORDECAI[1]) b. 22-Jul-1654, Staines, Middlesex, England, ref: 12, occupation Miller, m. 1701, MARY OSBORN. THOMAS died 12-May-1698, Fairfield, Fairfield Co., CT. Thomas seems to have been a man respected in his community, and he served on several grand and petty juries from 1674 to 1693. In 1674 he himself was involved in a suit over valuable young she foxes, the court being held in Westchester. That Thomas was a fairly wealthy man is shown by the property left him and his wife by Roger Townsend, Richard Osborn and Mordecai and Mary Bedient. Thomas died intestate. Letters of administration were granted to his widow, one son and six daughters, all under age.
MARY: Daughter of Captain Richard Osborn who was born in London, Emg in 1612 Capt Osborn sailed from London in 1634 and died circa 1685 Westchester, NY.

THE BEDIENT FAMILY - 1996

This Appendix contains some items of interest extracted from newspapers. books, and unpublished family writings that you may find of interest.

From the Jamestown (NY) Journal written by Frank Hyde in March 1962.

Headlined "1912 Red Sox To Have Reunion - Falconer's Hugh Bedient Invited"

The Boston Red Sox' old guard is going to have a reunion and Hugh Bedient of Falconer will be among them. Hugh and his son-in-law, Hermes Ames of Falconer, will be among them. Hugh has been asked to attend, all expenses paid, an April 21 memorial program observing the openeing of Fenway Park in 1912. Hugh and his son-in-law will drive to Boston. Red Sox officials, Bedient said last night, are putting tracers on the 1912 gang which beat the New York Giants in the World Series. ---------- Hugh appeared in four games in the 1912 series, three in relief. He started the last game and was lifted for a pinch hitter in the seventh. Smokey Joe Wood eventually getting the victory. ----- (Article goes on to give details of game).

From the Lee County, Illinois, Portrait and Geographical Record, April 1892

Osborn Bedient, who resides on Section 33, Lee County Township, is an old settler of this County, being the second man to settle here outside of Dixon. He has acquired an enviable reputation as an upright, honest man who has accomplished a success in life by his industry and economy. He was born in Otsego County, New York at Gilbertsville, April 27, 1832 where he passed the first twelve years of his life. At that time, his father moved to Broome County in the same state, residing there until 1854, when he came in the fall of that year with his wife and two children to Amboy, this state. He lived there for two years,being employed by the Illinois Central Railroad and in other occupations. He then purchased a tract of land in Marion Township, this county, on which he lived and settled for one year, when he returned to Amboy, there spending the following three years. At the end of this time the farm which he now owns, and which he purchased at the end of the second year. On this he has erected a fine set of buildings and also has built a residence, second to none in this county. His farm comprised 260 acres and is under a high state of cultivation. --------- (Article goes on to give details concerning family members).

From the Fairfield County , Connecticut, Commemorative Biographical Record.

James B. Bedient, general merchant and grocer of the town of Wilton, was born there May 10, 1865, and obtained his education in the common schools. Having completed his schooling he engaged in farming up to his twenty-second year, when he established himself in the grocery and general mercantile business, which he has since conducted. He has been unusually successful from a commercial standpoint, having from the beginning enjoyed the confidence of the public. From his early manhood until within recent years he was a Democrat, but he is now a Republican. He has never aspired to public office, though he was appointed postmaster of Wilton in 1891. --------(Article goes on to describe family).

A list of the Original Proprietors of Hartford

John Barnard, malster, came, probably in the Francis, from Ipswich, 1634, with wife Mary, aged 38; was perhaps the freeman of Mar. 4, 1635; removed 1636 from Cambridge to Hartford, where he was an original proprietor; he had 24 acres in the division of 1639-40, and his homelot was on the south side of the highway, now Elm St. Chosen deputy 1642-3; townsman 1644, 1649, 1653, 1657. Exempted by the General Court from watching and warding May, 1656. He was one of the "withdrawers", and removed to Hadley, 1659. He was buried there May 23, 1664, leaving a widow Mary, but no children. The widow died Feb. of Mar 1664-5. John Barnard mentions in his will his kinsman, Francis Barnard, as Executor, Morgan and Thomas Bedient, children of his sister Mary living in old England, and the children of his kinsman Henry Hayward of Wethersfield. His widow left much of her property to her brothers Daniel aand William Stacy of Burnham, near Malden, Co. Essex.

NATHANIELL VNDERHILL (His seal) JOSEPH LEE
The endorsement on the back of the paper is as follows: Thomas Bedient's Release to Thomas Wittclock.

From the preceding data, we conclude that Thomas Seabrook bought, in November, 1672, the house and land of Morgan Bedient, in the town of Westchester. Shortly after this transaction, both Bedient and Seabrook died, and the property being still unpaid for, Bedient's brother, Thomas, who had succeeded to his estate, brought an action against Thomas Whitlock to enforce the completion of the contract. Evidently Whitlock had become liable, as the husband of Seabrook's widow, for Seabrook's debts, as she carried to him all her late husband's estate.

In 1688 the action was discontinued and a release was signed by Thomas Bedient.

APPENDIX III

THE BEDIENT FAMILY - 1996

This Appendix contains some statistical and other data that you might find interesting or useful. The charts on pages 3 -7 are correct as far as the data contained in the main body of the report permits. There are many incomplete or missing dates and other missing elements that affect these numbers but the charts are included for general interest.

The Descendant count at the top of page 2 is of the same degree of accuracy as the data in the main body of the document (pages 1 - 120). As additional family members are discovered, this count will change.

The Direct Decendancy Chart at the bottom of page 2 is just a sample of what you can easily build for any person listed in the main body. This can be constructed by simply following the Direct Lineage information immediately following the person's name (if it is an unmarried child or a child with no descendants, you would pick-up from the parents Direct Lineage).

In the main body of this document, a way of determining relationship between two individuals listed was explained by using Reference Numbers. Another way of doing this (possibly simpler for some) is to follow the Direct Lineage information. Just follow this for each individual until you reach a common ancestor (there will always be one) and construct a chart similar to the following:

Mordecai Bedient Jr
(Common Ancestor)

Charles Bedient	(Siblings)	Jesse Bedient
Curtis Bedient	(1st cousins)	Osborn Bedient
Charles Bedient	(2nd cousins)	Fred Bowen Bedient
Frederick C. Bedient	(3rd cousins)	Herbert Fred Bedient
Andrew Olin Bedient	(4th cousins)	Donald Eugene Bedient
Stanley Melvin Bedient	(5th cousins)	James Richard Bedient
Stephen LaVere Bedient	(6th cousin)	Emily Rae Bedient

Jared LaVere Bedient

Emily Rae Bedient is the sixth cousin, once removed, of Jared LaVere Bedient
